Answering the questionnaire

When you play for the first time, some questions will be presented to you. Be honest when answering the questions — think about how you would really respond. Your answers determine which Pokémon you will be on your adventure.

Name Pokémon

After the questions, you will be asked to name your partner Pokémon. Enter a name that you think is the best. Once done, choose END. Once you awake in the game, you will be asked to enter your name. Do the same thing you did for your partner.

Continuing the Game

When you play after you save the game, the Main Menu (to the right) will be displayed. Choose a command and select with the A Button.

CONTINUE

You can resume the game from the spot where you last saved. Your play time and the number of your adventures will also be displayed.

DELETE SAVE DATA

Your save data will be deleted. Your ADVENTURE LOG will still remain; however, the rest of your data will be cleared and you will have to start from the beginning.

ADVENTURE LOG

You can check your rescue team’s achievements. You can also check the Moves you have learned, and the number of Pokémon that have joined your team.

FRIEND RESCUE, TRADE ITEMS and WONDER MAIL

Using the Game Boy Advance Game Link™ cable, or by entering passwords, you can interact with your friends (see page 36). These features expand the adventures possible to you.
Even if you are on an adventure in a dungeon, you can quicksave your game. Save your adventure whenever you want, and proceed at your own pace!

How to Save

You can save the game using your bed in your Rescue Team Base. Walk to the bed, and when you are asked if you would like to save, select YES. You can start the game from here next time you play.

Saving while on an Adventure

Open the menu, select OTHERS, and then QUICKSAVE OR GIVE UP. If you choose QUICKSAVE, you can stop playing the game even if you are in a dungeon. However, once you resume a quicksaved adventure, the quicksave data will be deleted. Choosing GIVE UP will return you to your base in the same way as being defeated during an adventure.

When you are Defeated on an Adventure

If your HP hits 0 in a dungeon, you are defeated and you will be brought back to your base. If you are defeated in a dungeon, you will lose all of your money, and some of your items as well. However, you do not lose any experience points (Exp. Points). As you proceed further in the story, you will be able to ask your friends to come and try to rescue you. When you are asked if you would like to call for a rescue, select YES. You will now be AWAITING RESCUE (see page 36).

NOTE!

There can only be one adventure save file.

Even if you are defeated, try again! Never give up!
Game Flow

Before you know it, you will form a rescue team with your partner Pokémon and set off on dungeon adventures without delay.

Get the Rescue Team Starter Set!

When you form your rescue team, a Starter Set will be delivered to your mailbox. In it, you will find a Rescue Team Badge, a Toolbox in which you can keep items you find in dungeons, and a copy of Pokémon News.

Check the Mailbox

The mailbox in front of the Rescue Team Base will get new issues of Pokémon News as well as rescue requests. Check the mailbox frequently.

Get ready!

Once your preparations are complete, you can set off on an adventure. Before you go to a dungeon, you can go to Pokémon Square and buy and sell items, store and take items, and train your team at the Makuhita Dojo.

• To Adventures (see page 23)
• To Friend Areas (see page 30)
• To Pokémon Square (see page 35)

Set off on an Adventure

Take the street opposite your Rescue Team Base and select the dungeon you would like to go to. To complete the job you’ve chosen, go to a dungeon that has an envelope mark ☑ next to it. A ☑ is displayed next to a dungeon that will trigger an event.

Clearing dungeons

Once you reach a dungeon, complete your rescue job by making your way through the dungeon and defeating any enemy Pokémon. Don’t forget to pick up any items you find.

Turn-based battles!

While in a dungeon on a mission, there are many “enemy” Pokémon that will attack you. Rescue as many Pokémon in trouble as possible by mastering the ways of battling.

The battles in dungeons use a turn-based system. When your Pokémon moves one step, all enemies on the floor do the same. When you attack once, the enemies attack once. Each time this happens, it’s called a “turn”. If you don’t make any actions, the enemy Pokémon will do nothing as well. Make sure you don’t rush yourself, you have time to think the battles through carefully.

Take advantage of your Moves in battle

You can get more Exp. Points when you defeat an enemy using Moves instead of regular attacks. Once you set a Move, you can use it by simply pressing the L and A Buttons together.

MISSION OBJECTIVES

RECRUITMENT SEARCH
Check potential Pokémon recruits on the floor you are on, as well as which Pokémon you’ve already recruited from the floor.

HINTS
Check useful information about playing the game, such as hints on controls, items and so on.

GROUND

Check the ground you are standing on. If you find an item, you can pick it up or eat it. You can also exchange it with one of yours, or throw it at an enemy.
Pokémon and Moves have their own types. There are matchup advantages and disadvantages. For example, Water type has an advantage against Fire type. Pay attention to type, and use the right Move against the right enemy.

Status changes
If you are affected by a status change (such as Paralysis, Poison or Burn) by an enemy Pokémon’s attack, restore yourself using Seeds or Berries. You can also be restored by moving to the next floor.

Utilise items
Gravelerocks are very useful in battles. If you throw it at an enemy Pokémon that is far away, it can do significant damage to them before you get close. There are many items you can throw. If you set an item, you can throw it easily by pressing the L and R Buttons (see page 19).

Check Pokémon type

Dungeons
In dungeons, there is danger awaiting you. Fear not, if you know how to handle yourself in a dungeon, there is nothing to worry about!

How to Check the Dungeon Map
White dot Your location
Yellow dot Team member’s location
Red dot Enemy Pokémon’s location
Blue dot Item location
Blue square Stairs location

Dungeons change every time
Every time you enter a dungeon, the layout changes. The way the rooms are connected and the location of the stairs change every time you go into a dungeon – even the same one.

Watch the weather carefully
Dungeons are affected by weather, such as CLEAR, CLOUDY, RAINY, SANDSTORM and SNOW. Depending on a Pokémon’s type, some will take damage while some attacks are actually raised by the weather.
Even though your HP is decreased from enemy attacks, it is restored little by little as you walk around in a dungeon. If you want your HP to recover quicker, press and hold the A and B Buttons at the same time. Since this causes turns to proceed while standing still, your HP will restore very quickly. Be careful, if you do this, your Belly decreases and enemy Pokémon will also gather around you.

Items are indispensable when you’re on a rescue mission. Make sure you understand completely what effect each item has.

You can find items in many places

Items can be obtained many ways, such as picking them up in a dungeon, buying them at shops, and having them given to you by a client after a successful mission. Since items have varying effects, use them carefully.

Check the effect of items

Have you found an item that you don’t know how to use? If so, check the INFO of the item under the ITEMS command. This way, you can use items efficiently.

These are some of the items that you can use in the game:

Make sure to talk to all the Pokémon in the square!

These shops sell items and TMs, and are run by the Kecleon brothers. The Kecleon on the left deals in items and the Kecleon on the right deals in Wonder Orbs and TMs. You can either buy or sell here. Use the shops wisely to provide you with an advantage on your adventures.

Makuhita Dojo

Pokémon in charge: Makuhita
You can raise the level of your team members by training in various types of rooms here. All the rooms have the name of a Pokémon type, such as the Fire Maze or Electric Maze where only Fire-type or Electric-type Pokémon will appear. This will allow you to easily study how types match up in battle.

Pelipper Post Office

Pokémon in charge: Pelipper
You can receive SOS Mails from other players and leave on a friend rescue from here. Also, you can send A-OK Mails or send and receive Thank-You Mails here. Check the bulletin board in front of the Post Office where you can find rescue jobs (see page 36).

Introduction to the Pokémon World

This is a world in which only Pokémon live. There are so many places to see — such as the Thunderwave Cave or Mt. Thunder.

The Pokémon World

This time around, your adventures will take place in various dungeons located throughout this Pokémon world. In the dungeons, the terrain, enemies and items you find will change every time you enter them — even if it's the same dungeon. Take great care when you go on a rescue job, you never know what you’ll find!

Friend Areas

Friend Areas are important places where your Pokémon friends can live. Without Friend Areas, Pokémon cannot become your friends. You can buy Friend Areas at the Wigglytuff Club in Pokémon Square.

Pokémon World Map
The Game Boy Advance Game Link cable enables you to expand your enjoyment even further. The following is an introduction on how to use it.

This game is not compatible with other Pokémon versions for the Game Boy™ or Game Boy Advance. Please also remember that you cannot link up with friends that are playing in another language.

The flow of friend rescues

1. Waiting for a friend rescue
   Select GET HELP under the FRIEND RESCUE command on the Main Menu, then choose SEND SOS MAIL. Next, select GAME LINK CABLE. Connect the cable following the instructions on the screen, then press the A Button to begin communication. If you use passwords, just let the other player know the password displayed on the screen.

2. Going on a friend rescue
   Select GO RESCUE under the FRIEND RESCUE command on the Main Menu, then choose RECEIVE SOS MAIL. Next, select GAME LINK CABLE and resume the game by selecting CONTINUE on the Main Menu. Once you start the game, go to the Pelipper Post Office and talk to the Pelipper on the left. Select LEAVE FOR RESCUE to go on the friend rescue mission. When you reach the Rescue Spot and select RESCUE, the rescue will be completed. You will then automatically return to the Pelipper Post Office. Talk to the Pelipper on the left and send an A-OK Mail.

When you send an A-OK Mail, you can send a Pokémon you’ve befriended to your friend as a helper Pokémon.
- The Pokémon will not disappear from your game if you send it as a helper Pokémon.
- You can also receive SOS Mails at the Pelipper Post Office.

3. Waiting for a friend rescue
   When the player who left on a friend rescue mission succeeds, they will send you an A-OK Mail. Once they have done this, select GET HELP under the FRIEND RESCUE command on the Main Menu, then choose RECEIVE A-OK MAIL. Next, select GAME LINK CABLE and choose REVIVE TEAM after you receive the A-OK Mail. Now you can resume the game from the spot where you were defeated in the dungeon.

There is also a chance that your friend sent you a helper Pokémon along with the A-OK Mail. If so, you can resume your adventure with the helper Pokémon.

Thank-You Mail

The player who was revived can send a Thank-You Mail to the player who rescued them. To do this, select GET HELP under the FRIEND RESCUE command on the Main Menu. Then select SEND THANK-YOU MAIL and choose GAME LINK CABLE. You can do the same thing by talking to the Pelipper on the right at the Pelipper Post Office and choosing SEND THANK-YOU MAIL. If you want, you can attach an item to the Thank-You Mail. After selecting the method of sending the mail, choose SEND ITEM, then choose the item you want to attach.

If you have no items at Kangaskhan Storage, you cannot send one.

Trade Items

Using the Game Link cable, you can trade your items in Kangaskhan Storage with other players. Make use of this feature to help you on your adventures.
When you receive Wonder Mail, you will get the same rescue job as the friend who sent it. Something good may happen if you clear this rescue mission...

Passwords enable you to do the same!
If you aren’t able to link up with a friend (for example, if your friend has the Blue Rescue Team version), you can use passwords to send and receive mail for friend rescue missions. Simply choose the PASSWORD command when you are asked how you would like to send or receive mail (see page 10 for how to input passwords).

You cannot send helper Pokémon when you use passwords.
